best people in Flat River have the blessing of Holiness and others are anxiously seeking. Thank God for Bible Holiness, that actually satisfies the soul of man. Matt. 11:28. We close out here Monday night, June 6th, and send our tent to Edge Hill, Mo., where all arrangements have been made for quite a while for a meeting. I have tried nearly two years to get there but calls came so thick and fast I was held off until now—so let every Christian who reads this pray that God will give us an old-fashioned revival meeting at Edge Hill. My tent will be there June 7th, and Bro. Mitchell will have charge and open the meeting, and June 9th I will arrive on the ground with my wife and daughter and some good singers. We will have for our organist during the meeting, Mrs. Fred Geitz, of Ellington, the daughter of Mr. M. L. Copeland. Everybody come and bring your dinner and stay all day. I can't tell when folks will shout. More about Flat River later.

Very Truly,
REV. W. W. STROTHER.
